

How closely do the two models agree?

Each point is one secondary outcome $\times$ manipulation comparison. Points near the diagonal have similar estimates.